GROUNDS FOR APPEAL:

There are two types of variances: non-use variances and use variances. A use variance permits the use of land that is otherwise not allowed in a zoning district. A non-use variance is a variance regarding setbacks; height; parking; sign size or placement; fences and walls.

In either case, the applicant must prove to the Zoning Board of Appeals that not receiving this variance will cause undue hardship or practical difficulty. Please complete either the use variance or non-use variance sections

(whichever is applicable to your request)—DO NOT COMPLETE BOTH SECTIONS.

NON-USE VARIANCE

A non-use variance is a variance regarding setbacks; height; parking; sign size or placement; fences and walls. The need for the variance is due to unique circumstances or physical conditions of the property because _____.

The need for the variance is not the result of actions of the property owner or previous property owners because _____.

Strict compliance with the ordinance will unreasonably prevent the property owner from using the property for a permitted purpose or will render conformity with those regulations unnecessarily burdensome because _____.

The requested variance is the minimum variance necessary to do substantial justice to applicant as well as other property owners because _____.

The requested variance will not adversely impact the surrounding properties because: _____.

USE VARIANCE

A use variance permits the use of land that is otherwise not allowed in a zoning district.

The building or land cannot be reasonably used for any of the uses permitted by right or by special use permit in the current zoning district because: _____.

The need for the variance is due to unique circumstances or physical conditions of the property because: _____.

Proposed use will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood because: _____.

The need for the variance is not the result of actions of the property owner or previous property owners because _____.

I understand that ZBA members may need to access my property to better understand my case. I understand that financial hardship cannot be considered. I have received the brochure outlining ZBA procedures and requirements.
